

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

In Re Carter Black, Minor

Docket No. 267017

LC No. 05-444808-NA

Judges

The Court orders that the motion to remand filed by the Department of Human Services is GRANTED. The motion to remand, with its information that it is the position of the Department of Human Services that its request for the termination of respondent-appellant's parental rights was mistaken and contrary to the best interests of the child, combined with the Court's review of the briefs on appeal and the record, convinces the Court that the matter should be remanded to afford respondent-appellant the opportunity to reunite with her child. The Court orders that the termination of respondent-appellant's parental rights is REVERSED and the matter is REMANDED to the trial court for consideration of whether reunification of mother and child would be in the child's best interests. The Court retains no further jurisdiction.

The motions for oral argument are DENIED as moot.
